

Secondary Ed. Report

I was involved in the planning of a spring workshop for secondary ed. teachers, but due to time restraints the workshop never happened.

I attended one of the "retreat-like" meeting this summer in Bloomington; where we evaluated the organization and the board structure.

I worked closely with Brian Rohman in recruiting presenters for this year's convention's secondary panels.